Overview

The Levelo SkyTip Stylus Pen is engineered for any user seeking a seamless digital drawing experience on Apple devices. It enables direct, responsive onscreen interaction, providing a cost-effective alternative to the Apple Pencil. This document outlines the pen's specifications. The stylus remains active as long as its lithium-ion battery maintains charge, facilitating ongoing use without interruption. For energy conservation, the stylus automatically shuts off after five minutes of inactivity.

Features

1. Engineered to diminish writing noise and provide outstanding precision with a 1.5mm tip.
2. Delivers a frictionless writing experience, ensuring unmatched comfort.
3. Adapts to the angle of your hand, enabling precise and intricate strokes.
4. The integrated spring dynamically adjusts to the pressure exerted, ensuring smooth and consistent movement.
5. Optimized for rapid, dependable, and efficient charging.
6. Incorporates a distinctive plunge mechanism equipped with a convenient turn-on/off button.
7. Dual Functionality: This stylus offers dual functionality, allowing you to comfortably rest your palm on the iPad while drawing or writing. The anti-touch pencil feature enables natural palm placement on the screen, whereas with an ordinary pencil function, your palm must remain elevated, unsupported by the surface.

Anti-Touch Pen

Conventional Pen

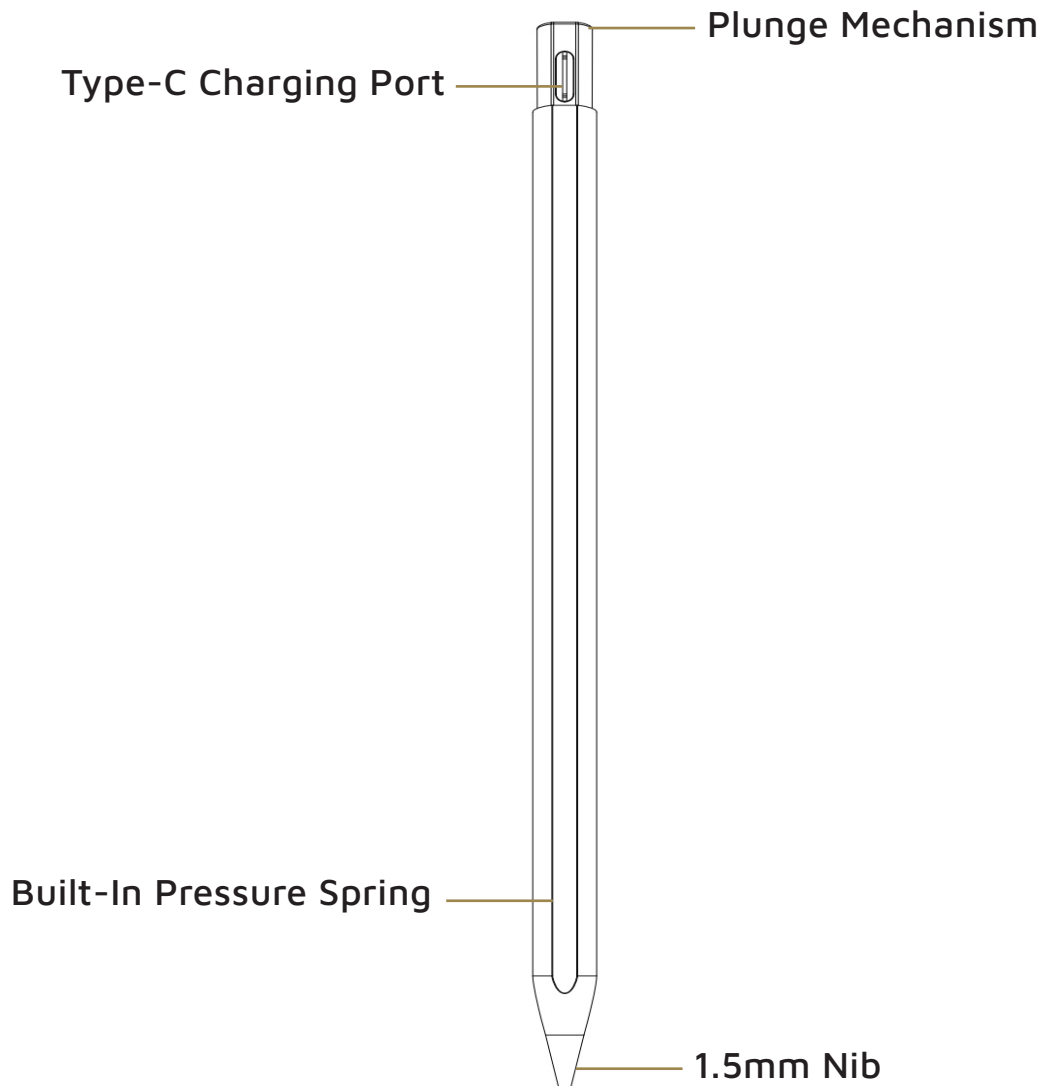

8. The stylus features a smart chip with a built-in pressure spring that accurately simulates pressure sensitivity while writing. This advanced technology ensures that the lines produced are smoother and more natural.

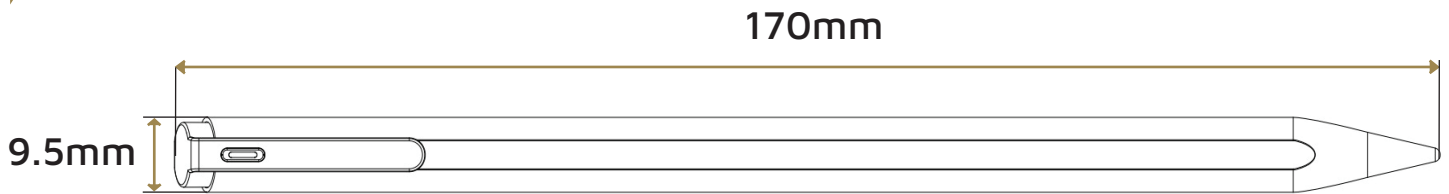

9. This stylus features magnetic adsorption, enabling secure attachment to the central position of an iPad. The built-in magnet ensures rapid and reliable docking, enhancing convenience and usability.
